STUDENT CHANGEMAKER NETWORK

Helping young leaders turn ideas into meaningful action.

The Student Changemaker Network (SCN) is a growing network connecting young people with opportunities to learn, lead, connect with others, and make a difference in their communities.

SCN is currently piloting a series of programs and experiences for youth-serving organizations, faith communities, and other groups that work with young people.

WHAT'S HAPPENING NOW

ENGAGEMENT SESSIONS

Practical changmaking skills for your group

Interactive sessions exploring topics such as:

- How Do We Actually Change the World?
- Courageous Conversations
- From Passion to Action

Sessions can be adapted to the interests and needs of your group.

CHANGEMAKER GATHERINGS

Learn. Practice. Connect.

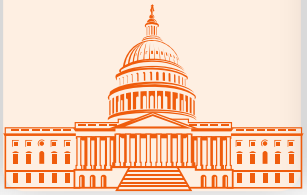

Join these monthly gatherings focused on developing practical skills for creating positive change.

There will be opportunities to discuss issues they care about, learn and practice nonviolence skills, and connect with other changemakers!

ADVOCACY TRIP TO WASHINGTON, D.C.

Meet with politicians & policymakers

Travel to Washington, D.C. to learn about advocacy, meet with policymakers and representatives, and experience civic engagement firsthand!

STUDENT CITIZENS' ASSEMBLY

Be part of democracy in action!

Be part of a diverse group of students that learn about an issue, hear different perspectives, deliberate, and develop recommendations for a policymaker.

Experience democracy in action while building skills in dialogue, collaboration, and problem solving!

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Celebrating those who are making a difference

SCN will recognize those who demonstrate service, creativity, and a commitment to making their communities better.
